Premier of Iran, Hakimi, Resigns

Teheran, Iran (AP) Premier Ibrahim Hakimi resigned Sunday night after asserting that his efforts to negotiate with the Russians over Azerbaijan had failed.

Hakimi's fall was foreshadowed last week when he declared that his foreign policy had failed. He said then that efforts to negotiate with the Russians were unavailing and that he proposed to present the case to the United Nations organization.

Monday, Hakimi said he had told the shah he had "succeeded in placing Iran's case before the United Nations organization and I am now ready to step down."

London, England (AP) The Iranian delegate to the United Nations assembly, Nasrullah Entezam, said Monday that the resignation of Premier Hakimi "may mean the institution of direct negotiations with Russia" to settle Iran's dispute with the Soviet Union. Iran has protested alleged Russian interference in Iran's internal affairs.
